

INDEPENDENT BOOK STUDY - QUADRANT IV

YOU MADE IT TO QUADRANT IV!

Enjoy the rest of the story. You've worked hard and deserve to just relax and enjoy the ending of a great book. This part of the book is the denouement, the point where the action falls dramatically after the turning point and climax. It's the part that helps the reader feel that the story is over, you know what happened, and you can breathe a little easier.

AFTER FINISHING THE BOOK

Good readers synthesize their learning. This means they stop and put all the pieces together. It's time to create a synthesis summary. We've done that several different ways this year. I want you to put on your thinking cap and get super creative with this one. How can you demonstrate what you learned?

You get to choose the format (essay, treasure map, news cast, song, poem, poster, diorama, or however you choose!). But you need to convey the following:

1. title and author
2. main character and traits
3. setting
4. turning point (and how you know it's the turning point)
5. climax (and how you know it's the climax)
6. theme (with multiple pieces of evidence from the story to prove it!)

Please submit your synthesis summary to me for feedback.

CONGRATULATIONS ON INDEPENDENTLY COMPLETING A BOOK STUDY!
YOU SHOULD BE VERY PROUD OF YOURSELF!
